

Phoneme ER Medial and final -1

CVC One Syllable

Girl

Her

Blurred

Teacher

Swerve

Were

Curb

Other

Merge

Paper

Read the following sentence. See if you can remember the words above AND remember to use your "ER" sound in them.

The girl attempted to merge, but her vision was blurred so her car started to swerve and she hit the curb. Her teachers were in the other car behind her and helped fix the broken tire.

Phoneme ER Medial and final– 2

CVC One Syllable

Bird

Girl

Turn

Swerve

Firm

Teacher

Dirt

Other

Hurt

Her

The clumsy bird took a wrong turn and made a firm landing in the dirt causing him to become hurt. The girl noticed the bird's swerve and called her teacher to help the bird.

Phoneme ER Medial and final – 3

CVC One Syllable

Nurse

Turn

Church

Purple

First

Teacher

Serve

Were

Thirst

Her

The nurse at the church was the first to serve the boy a drink to quench his thirst. He was so thirsty that his face had turned purple. His nervous teachers were rushing over to help the nurse.

Phoneme ER Medial and final- 1

CVC Two Syllable

Surprise

Serve

Person

Were

Jury

Firm

Burglar

Church

Murder

Her

Read the following sentence. See if you can remember the words above AND remember to use your "ER" sound in them.

It was no surprise that not a person on the jury thought the burglar committed murder. The members that served on the jury were firm in their decision to punish the burglar for stealing from a church.

Phoneme ER Medial and final - 1

CVCV Two Syllable

Purple

Other

Turtle

Girl

Perfect

Swerve

Circle

Her

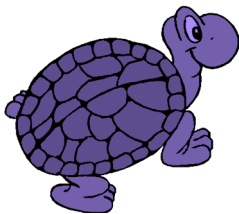

Fertile

Merge

Read the following sentence. See if you can remember the words above AND remember to use your "ER" sound in them.

The purple turtle walked in a perfect circle along the fertile garden. The girl saw it and swerved the other way so that her foot would not kick the turtle.

Phoneme ER Medial and final -1

CVRC One Syllable

Birth

Girl

Skirt

Turn

Swirl

Hurt

Twirl

Her

Flirt

Nurse

Read the following sentence. See if you can remember the words above AND remember to use your "ER" sound in them.

Since her birth, that girl in the skirt would swirl and twirl while trying to flirt. As the girl turned, she slipped and hurt her foot so they called the nurse.

Phoneme ER Medial - 2

CVRC One Syllable

Worst

Girl

Serf

Turn

Nerve

Firm

Shirt

Skirt

Purse

Hurt

Read the following sentence. See if you can remember the words above AND remember to use your "ER" sound in them.

You are the worst serf for having the nerve to spill ink on my shirt and purse.
The girl turned and said firmly "You're lucky that you didn't spill it on my skirt."

