

Phoneme R final - 4

CVCe two syllables

adhere

therefore

mixture

cookware

dishware

Review:

before

prepare

ignore

aware

Before the cook decides to prepare a meal, he makes sure to adhere to and never ignore the recipe's directions. Therefore, he is aware that his mixture of foods will taste better if he follows the recipe's directions. He also uses cookware to cook his food and dishware to eat his food.

Phoneme Diphthongs + R final - 5

CVCV two syllables

appear

unclear

affair

impair

detour

Review:

poor

sheer

fear

hair

It appears the road ahead is impaired.
Where the detour will take us is unclear.
This whole affair gave the poor man such sheer fear that his hair stood on end.

Phoneme R final - 2

CVC one to two syllables

despair

Review:

midair

affair

unfair

unclear

repair

pair

career

appear

What began this whole affair is unclear, but in despair the man threw the pair of glasses up, and they broke in midair. It was so unfair. It would appear that if he could not repair them it would mean the end of his career.

Phoneme Diphthongs/Long Vowels + R

CVC one to two syllables

cheer

year

near

root-beer

wheelchair

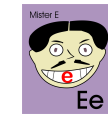

Review:

appear

unclear

unfair

repair

The girl was full of cheer at her 5-year-old birthday party. Her whole family appeared. They came from near and far. They had wheelchair races and drank lots of root-beer. During one race, the winner became unclear because it was determined that the race was unfair since one wheelchair needed repair.

Phoneme Diphthongs/Long Vowels + R

CVCV one to two syllables downpour

court

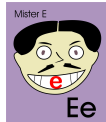

spear

steer

peer

Review:

near

unclear

unfair

cheer

The downpour of rain made the court wet. This caused her peer to slip, and his spear flew into the air towards the road. It landed near a car, but luckily it was able to steer out of the way. At first it was unclear to the audience whether the car had crashed, which they thought would be unfair. When they saw that it was okay, they all stood up to cheer.

