

Phoneme R - 4

Diphthong one syllable

Mohr

war

oar

nor

scour

Review:

boar

for

chore

door

shore

It is unusual for a Mohr gazelle to go to war with a boar for an oar. Both animals wanted to use the wood to finish a chore, building a door, but neither the boar nor the gazelle wanted to give it up. Finally they scour their differences and go to the shore to use the oar together in a canoe.

Phoneme R final - 1

CVVC one syllable

deer	 Ee	 er
peer	 Ee	 er
soar	 or
poor	 or
near	 Ee	 er

The deer watched its poor peer soar near an alligator's mouth.

Phoneme R final - 2

CVVC one syllable

bear

tear

boar

door

your

Review:

peer

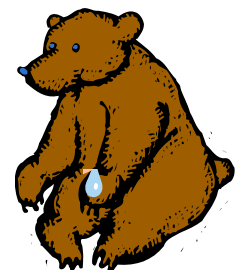

poor

deer

rear

soar

The bear shed a tear when his peer, a poor deer, got hit in the rear. A boar rammed him instead of your front door. It would have been a sight to see your front door soar through the air and onto your living room floor.

Phoneme R final - 3

CVVC one syllable

Review:

peer

rear

bear

tear

pour

If you peer to the rear of the cabin, you will see a bear with your hair gear. He will pour out your shampoo and tear your poor straightener in half! No need to fear, we will get it as soon as we hear the bear leave.

