

Phoneme S initial - 11

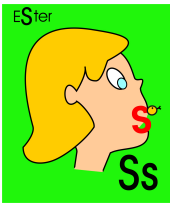

CVVC one syllable

snows

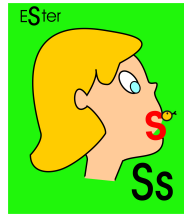

Review:

slows

stout school

scout spouts

soon

sprout

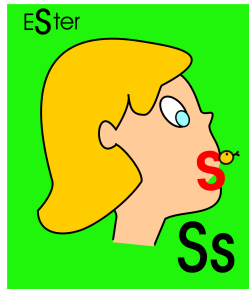

soil

When it snows, the stout traffic scout slows down the cars driving to school. Drivers want spring to come soon when plants will sprout from the soil and rain to come down the spouts.

Phoneme S initial -1

CVVC one syllable

seat

sees sail

soak

seal

From his seat under the sail, Sam sees a seal soaking in the sun.

Phoneme S initial -2

CVVC one syllable

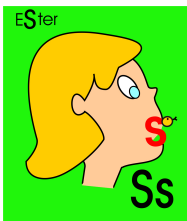

soap

sweet seeds

sleep

snail

Review:

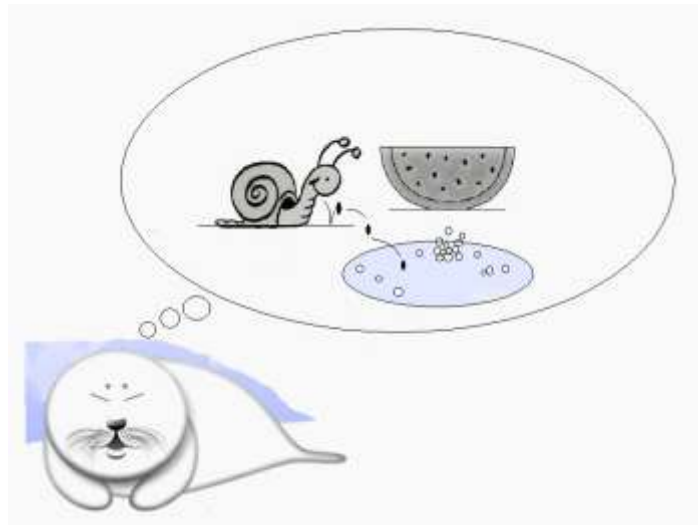

seal

seat

sees

soak

A seal soaking in his seat goes to sleep. In his dreams, he sees a snail spitting sweet watermelon seeds into soap and water.

Phoneme S initial -3

CVVC one syllable

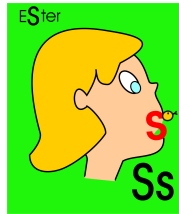

Review:

sneaks

sleep

steal

sweet

seen

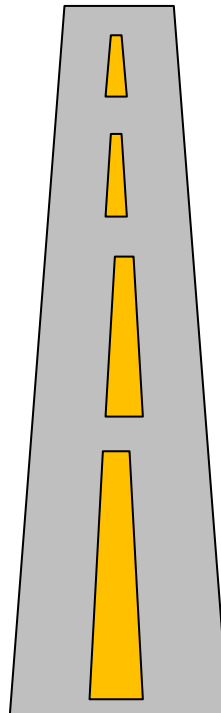

seal

stays

snail

street

While Mom and Dad sleep, Sam sneaks out of bed to steal a sweet cookie. He is seen by his pet snail and the seal who stays across the street.

Phoneme S initial -4

CVVC one syllable

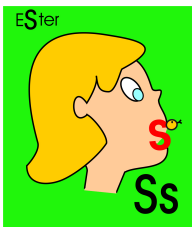

steed

speed

steep

scream

Spain

Review:

street

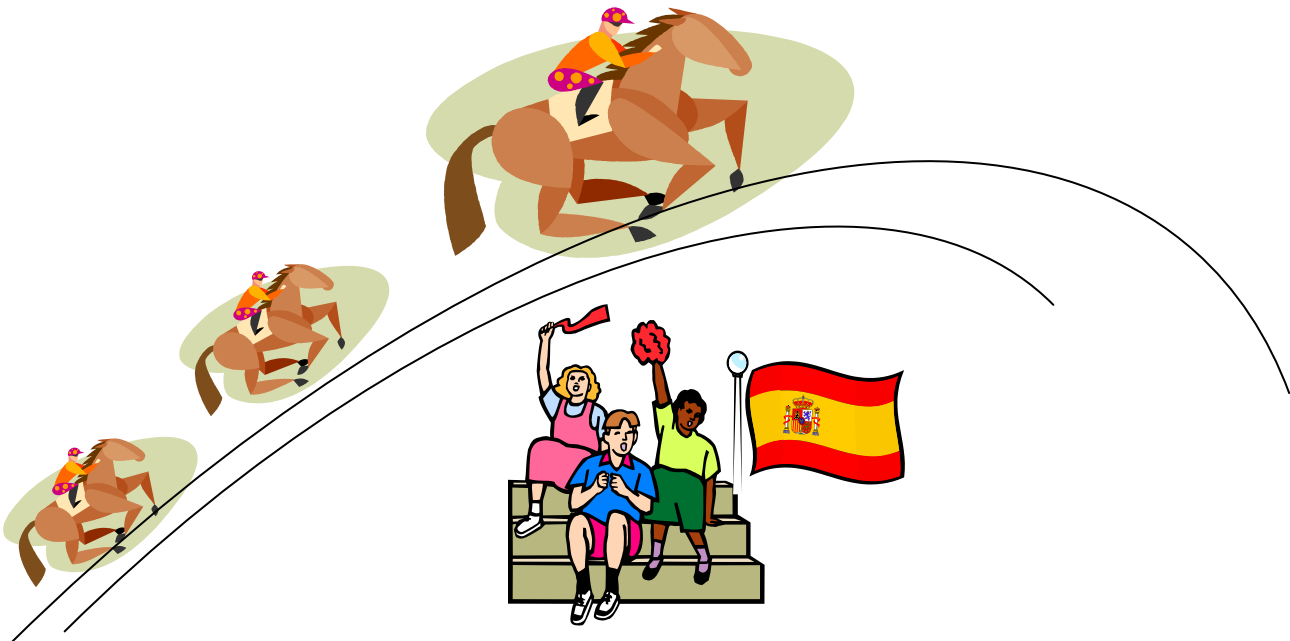

seats

stays

snails

The man races his steed at a fast speed up the steep street in Spain. The people scream from their seats as he stays in first place and makes the others look slow as snails.

Phoneme S initial - 12

CVVC one syllable

snout

spoil

stoop

scoop

sows

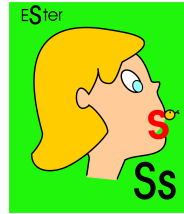

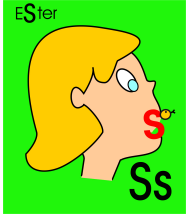

Review:

school

sprouts

snows

slows

The dog uses his snout to search for sprouts that spoil from the winter snows. The man slows down the dog so he can stoop to the ground and scoop out the old plants before he sows new seeds.

Phoneme S initial – 1

CVVC 1-2 syllable

sail
seas sailboat
soap
seems

Today the little girl wants to sail her sailboat, but it seems the seas are filled with soap.

Phoneme S initial – 2

CVVC 1-2 syllable

Sundays

seagull

soar

seashore

steamboat

Review:

seems

sailboat

sail

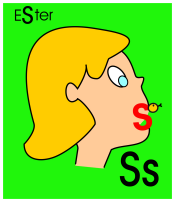

seas

Sundays, it seems, are perfect for a seagull to soar along the seashore. As he flies up above, a sailboat and a steamboat sail through the seas.

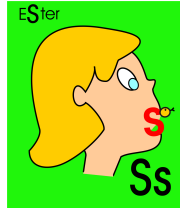

Phoneme S initial – 3

CVVC 1-2 syllable

seal
seeds
soon
sweet sour

Review: Sundays
seashore
seagull
soar

On Sundays, a baby seal plants seeds along the seashore that he thinks will soon grow into sweet smelling flowers. “These flowers smell sour,” says his seagull friend, “Now I must soar away!”

Phoneme S Initial- 1

CVVC Two Syllable

Seagull

Season

Sailboat

Sailor

Seahorse

It was a warm season to be in the ocean. The sailor rode his sailboat in the ocean. He saw a seagull in the sky and a seahorse in the water.

Phoneme S Initial-2

CVVC Two Syllable

Review:

Sailor

Season

Sailboat

Seahorse

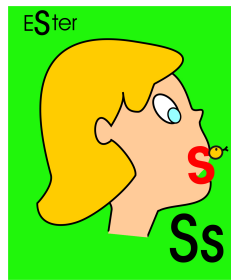

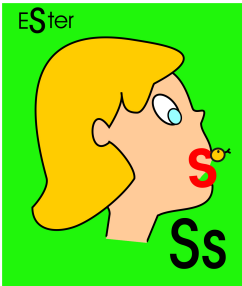

Seashore

Steamboat

Stingrays

Sunbeam

Sundays

The sailor rides his steamboat on Sundays. He can feel the warm sunbeam during this season. He can see stingrays swimming with a seahorse in the ocean and a sailboat sailing near the seashore.

Phoneme S Initial- 3

CVVC Two Syllable

Seesaw

Seamstress

Sundaes

Seaside

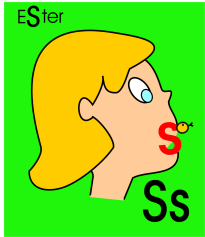

Subways

A seamstress was looking for some buttons for her dress. She searched by the speeding subways. She also searched on the seaside by two children on a seesaw eating sundaes.

Phoneme S Initial-4

CVVC Two Syllable

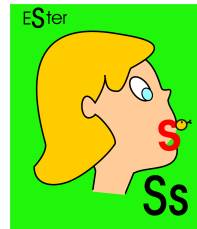

Seaweeds

Sunrays

Seashells

Seasick

Soybeans

Review:

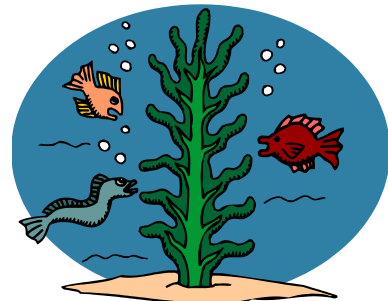

Seaside

Seesaw

Sundaes

Seamstress

The Seamstress was eating soybeans and picking up seashells by the seaside. She could see the sunrays from the sky and seaweeds near the shore. She saw two children playing on a seesaw eating sundaes and a seasick man on a boat.

Phoneme S Initial- 1

Diphthong Two Syllable

Seesaws

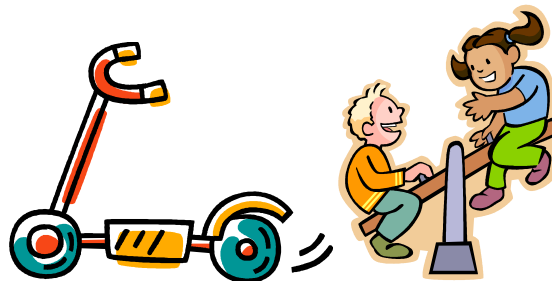

Scooters

Soil

Slideshows

Scarecrows

The children were playing on seesaws and riding on scooters. The children saw six scarecrows on top of the soil. The children went inside to watch some slideshows when the sun went down.

Phoneme S Initial- 2

Diphthong Two Syllable

Sunroof

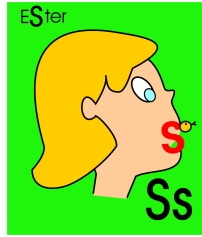

Sauna

Sour

Sausage

Sauces

Review:

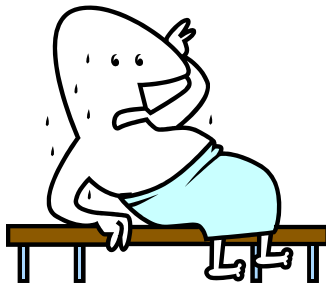

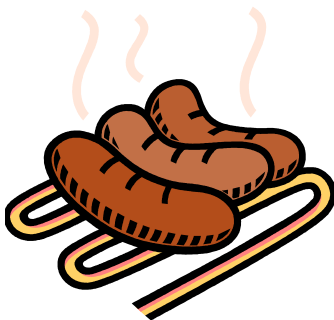

Soil

Scarecrows

Scooters

Seesaws

The children were each eating a sour sausage with sauces in the soil at the party. The other children were playing on seesaws and scooters by the scarecrows. The parents went into the sauna that had a sunroof.

Phoneme S Initial- 3

Diphthong Two Syllable

Review:

Snowboard

Sour

Snowing

Sausage

Sources

Scooters

Schooling

Seesaws

Southern

When the children were done with schooling, everyone went outside to snowboard in the snowing weather. In school, they learned from their sources that it rarely snows in the southern states. In the south, they live in the heat, where they can eat a sour sausage and play on scooters and seesaws.

Phoneme S Initial- 4

Diphthong Two Syllable

Spoiled

Review:

Soybeans

Sources

Sooner

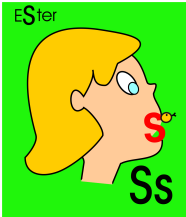

Snowboard

Slowly

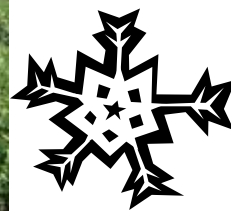

Schooling

Scouting

Snowing

The soybeans were slowly growing in the classroom during the children's schooling. Their sources told them that if they try scouting the soybeans under the sun, the sooner the soybeans can grow. The spoiled children saw that it was snowing outside and wanted to snowboard instead.

Phoneme S initial – 14

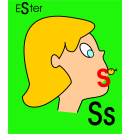

Diphthongs 1-2 syllable

saw

snow

South

slow

spook

Last summer, Alexander went skiing with his family. He saw snow for the first time because it hardly snows in the South. On his skis, he never went slow, and going super fast didn't even spook him!

Phoneme S Initial – 15

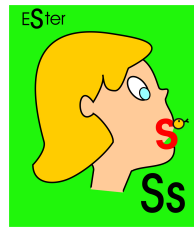

Diphthongs 1 and 2 Syllables

slaw

Review:

spout

South

spray

saw

spew

slow

straw

spook

Down South one Sunday, Mama Jones made her famous fried chicken and slaw for supper. During dinner, the spout on the sink broke, and Mama Jones saw water spray and spew all over. She had to slow the spray somehow, so she got a big straw and stuck it on the spout. The whole event did spook her for sure!

