

Phoneme TH final – 1

CVC one syllable

---

math

bath

with hath

moth

Max finished his math so he could play with his pet moth named Hath. Then he took a hot bath.

Phoneme TH final – 2

CVC one syllable

---

Ruth

myth

bath

hath

both

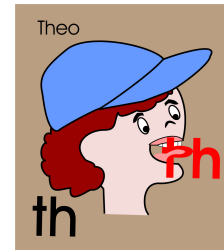

moth

path

pith

with

Max and Ruth Pith both walked east on the path with their dog named Hath. Max was not telling Ruth a myth when he said that he needed to feed his pet moth and to take a nice long bath.

Phoneme TH final – 7

CVC one syllable

---

filth

cloth

smith

sloth

broth

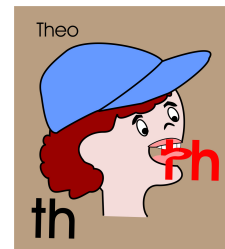

Review:

with

ruth

both

myth

Ruth Smith told both bill and bob a myth about a sloth eating her chicken broth. They told her to not speak such filth and to cover her mouth with a cloth.

Phoneme TH final – 8

CVC one syllable

---

sixth

month

worth

death

health

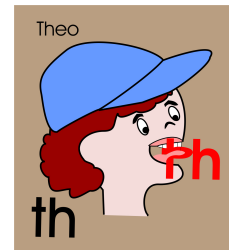

Review:

path

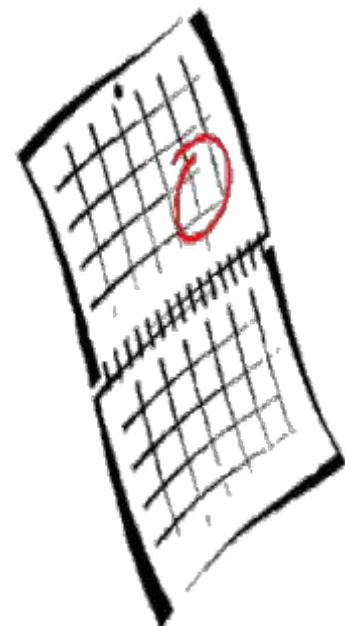

cloth

smith

sloth

On the sixth day, in the month of May, John Smith walked down the dirt path with his pet sloth who loved to chew on cloth. He told his sloth that chewing on cloth could result in death and that it is not worth hurting his health.

Phoneme TH final– 13

CVCe one syllable

---

Blythe

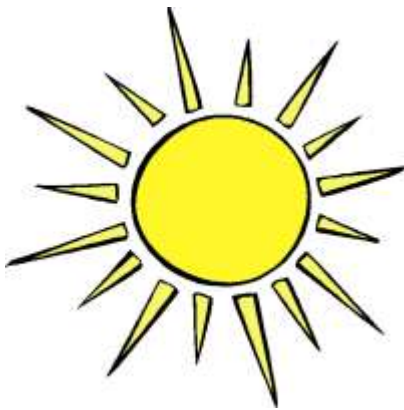

Faythe

loathe

bathe

Blythe and Faythe love to sun bathe in the sun, but they loathe getting tan lines.

Phoneme TH final– 14

CVCe one syllable

---

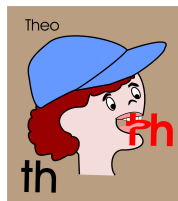

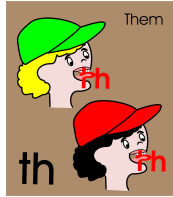

clothe

breathe

writhe

teeth

cloth

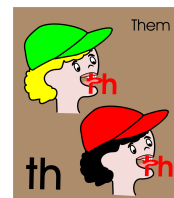

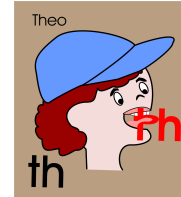

Review:

Blythe

Faythe

bathe

Blythe loves to bathe her baby Faythe in the tub, but Faythe must be scared because she always starts to breathe fast and writhe. Afterward, Blythe likes to dry Faythe off with a wash cloth, clothe her, and help her brush her teeth before bedtime.

Phoneme TH final– 15

CVCe one syllable

---

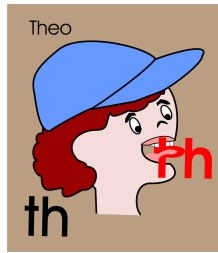

booth

mouth

cloth

tooth

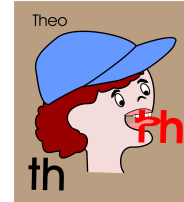

wreath

Review:

blythe

teeth

Blythe tripped over a wreath while walking into the store and hit her mouth on a booth and she lost a tooth. She was bleeding so she used a cloth to wipe the blood off of her teeth.

Phoneme TH final– 16

CVCe one syllable

---

Review:

youth

south

beth

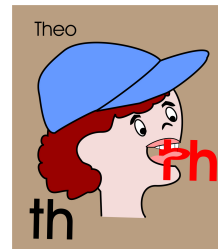

heath

cath

cloth

tooth

Many years ago during their youth, Heath and Cath met while they were in school down in the south. Later, they had girl named Beth who lost of her first tooth and she put it in a cloth under her pillow.

Phoneme TH Medial and Final - 14 CVVC/Diphthongs two syllables

uncouth

tollbooth

toothpick

beneath

overgrowth

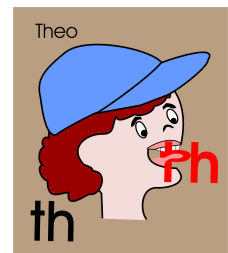

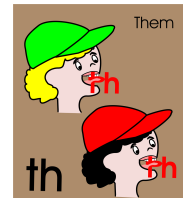

Review:

mouthing

buckteeth

healthy

youthful

The uncouth man at the tollbooth was mouthing a toothpick with his buckteeth. His healthy, youthful face was hidden beneath the overgrowth of his beard.

ClipartOf.com/442533

Phoneme TH medial and final - 15 CVVC/Diphthongs two syllables

unearthed
earthworm Heathcliff
undergrowth
smoothly

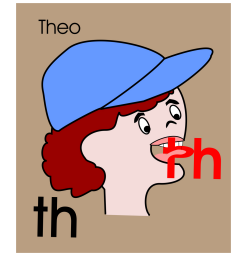

Review:

beneath

uncouth

healthy

youthful

Heathcliff smoothly unearthed the healthy earthworm that was hiding beneath the undergrowth. Mother told the youthful boy that playing with worms was uncouth.

Phoneme TH medial and final - 16

CVVC/Diphthongs two syllables

---

wealthy southward

breathtaking

cottonmouth

earthy

Review:

Heathcliff

youthful

toothbrush

beneath

Heathcliff was a wealthy, youthful man who was heading southward to see the breathtaking sights. He hoped he wouldn't see a cottonmouth or other snakes! He packed his toothbrush, some earthy clothes and got his boots from beneath his bed.

