ANYWHERE SOMEONE STARTS SINGIN' THE BLUES

By Susan Clark

VERSE

Ev'ry one loves the blues.
Well I guess that's nothing new.
'Cause there's somethin' about the blues
That makes you realize you're not the first to ever lose.
Ev'ryone likes the blues
When someone sings them sweet and slow.
'Cause there's somethin' about the blues
That makes you realize you're not so all alone.

CHORUS

Somebody told me a long time ago
Not to take my troubles with me ev'rywhere I go.
But there's one place where those troubles are always welcome.
Yes there's one place where they always feel at home
Yes there's one place that accepts a tear-stained face,
And that's any where someone starts singin' the blues.

VERSE

I never met anyone
Who always kept the blues on the run.
It's a proven law of life that into ev'ry path
A little rain is gonna fall.
Like a love who passes away
Leavin' you with so much more. left to say
Or some dream that won't come true
But doesn't have the decency to loosen it's grip on you.

BRIDGE

I'm tired of sayin' that ev'ry thing is alright
You know half the time I tell you that I'm just tellin' another lie,
'Cause sometimes I get so bogged down
I can't find which way is up.
But there's nothin' wrong with cryin' when you're down on your luck
Woh oh oh
