A PLACE WITHIN

by Kelvin McNeal

For all the years we spent together,
and all the times we've been apart,
For watching over me, allowing me, accepting me,
You are a place within my heart.

If I was lost you came and found me,
When I was found you found me more,
I find you in the world you showed me when the world was new,
You are a place within my heart.

For all the lives we've lived together,
For all the worlds we've yet to see,
For all the reasons why we are who we became to be,
You are a place within me.

Though our paths are not the same path,
Though our journeys may diverge,
You are in my heart, You are in my soul.
A place within my within my heart.

A place that's filled with all the light of you,
a place that's shining warm and true,
A place that's right and strong, where you belong and I belong,
You are a place within me.

Though our worlds are not the same worlds,
Though our rivers may diverge,
You are in my heart,
You are in my soul.

A place within my heart, a place within me,
You're a place within me a place of pure infinity
a place that always will belong in me.
For all the times we'll be together.
