

FOLLOW YOUR HEART

Scott Kalechstein
Adapted for Group Singing
by David Ezell

Slow Waltz Tempo ♩ = 57

B♭ F E♭ Dm E♭

Fol - low, fol - low, fol - low your heart. Find the still small voice in - side. Fol - low your heart to the

6 F B♭ E♭ F

Follow Your Heart

16 F<sup>7</sup> B $\flat$  F E $\flat$  Dm

When Mo-ses led Is-ra-el to the edge of the sea He Old Bud-dha, he placed him-self un-der a tree De-Now Je-sus, he taught us to love and for-give That's There's ma-ny a law-yer who'd rath-er be danc-ing, Some Now some say the end of the world is at hand But

21 E $\flat$  F B $\flat$  E $\flat$  F

did n't much know how to swim. He fol-lowed his heart to the ter-mined to real-ize Nir-va-na. He fol-lowed his heart to the all that his life was a-bout. He fol-lowed his heart to the danc-ers would like to try law. Just fol-low your heart to the that's not a cause for dis-grace. Just fol-low your heart to the

FOLLOW YOUR HEART

Scott Kalechstein

Chorus

Follow, follow, follow your heart.
Find the still small voice inside.
Follow your heart to the fountain of truth
And drink from its endless supply.

Verse

When Moses led Israel to the edge of the sea
He didn't much know how to swim.
He followed his heart to the fountain
of truth
And didn't even have to jump in.

Chorus

Verse

Old Buddha, he placed himself under a tree
Determined to realize Nirvana.
He followed his heart to the fountain
of truth
And now he's the East's prima donna

Chorus

Verse

Now Jesus, he taught us to love and forgive That's all that his life was about. He followed his heart to the fountain of
truth
We're still trying to figure him out.

Chorus

Verse

There's many a lawyer who'd rather be dancing,
Some dancers would like to try law.
Just follow your heart to the fountain
of truth
And see what your life has in store.

Chorus

Verse

Now some say the end of the world is at hand
But that's not a cause for disgrace.
Just follow your heart to the fountain of truth
And build a new world in its place.

Chorus