Human Race

By Richard Mekdeci

CHORUS

I'm a member of the human race.
Ask me where I'm from, I'll say this human place.
Born here with a heart, a soul, a face
I'm a member of the human race.

INSTRUMENTAL

VERSE 1

Looking at a forest, all I see are trees,
Oak, and elms, and sycamores, branches and leaves.
Ev'ry one is different, yet ev'ryone's the same.
Planted in this earth we give them all a common name.
In a universe so vast
We must guarantee humanity will last.

CHORUS

VERSE 2

We have all made wishes on the same bright star.
We fight the same enemy in our human hearts.
We will come together when we realize.
Then we can see each other with more than just our eyes.
Don't think in terms of them and us.
The future of our people is in God we trust.

CHORUS

BRIDGE

And as one family we'd stay,
With the fate of our children's children in our hand.

CHORUS

Oh, I'm a member of the human race.
Ask me where I'm from, I'll say this human place.
Born here with a heart, a soul, a face
I'm a member of the human,
A member of the human,
Member of the human race.
