SAME DREAMS

By DeeDee Laux

Verse

I wander through this life watching people as I go.
Ah some they seem so different from me, some I think I know.
Oh, and there's a man he's praying, prayers I don't recall.
No, we don't have to pray the same, God listens to us all.

Chorus

And though I can't imagine what life would be like
Oh, living in his shoes and seeing through his eyes,
But I'm trying to understand him, though different he may seem,
But I know we both share the same dreams.

Verse

Oh, and when it comes to love no two people are the same,
And when two women find each other some may call it strange.
Oh, and who can tell another whom their heart should love?
No nothing' starts between us, no it's sent from up above.

Chorus

And though I can't imagine what life would be like
While living in her shoes and seeing through her eyes,
But I'm trying to understand her, though different she may seem,
'Cause I know we both share the same dreams.

Verse

Oh, and people seem so strange yet I'll keep an open mind.
Those strange ones paved the way for these freedoms that I find.
Oh, if I did what I'm doing now two hundred years ago,
Well they'd burn me at the stake and say a woman should stay home.

Chorus

And though I can't imagine what life would be like
While living in their shoes and seeing through their eyes,
But I'm trying to understand them, though different they may seem,
'Cause I know we both share the same dreams.

Chorus

No, you can't imagine what life would be like
While living in my shoes and seeing through my eyes,
Please try to understand me, though different I may seem,
'Cause I know we both share the same dreams.
