

Alarm.com Fire Communicator (ADC-FC100) - FC100 Firmware Revision History

The following tables outline descriptions of firmware revisions for the Alarm.com Fire Communicator (ADC-FC100).

Note: All current versions support everything on previous versions.

Firmware Version	Details of updates
2.26.1	- Released December 2025. - Includes support for both Verizon and AT&T SIM cards. Important: Units in the field cannot upgrade to 2.26.1. They will need to be replaced for this version.
2.25.3	- Released November 18, 2025. - Changes the default phone number programmed upon the device's creation from "555555" to "ANY". - Added the ability to no longer require phone line validation (Now can use "ANY" phone number). Important: If you are on this version, please replace it with new hardware.
2.24.0	Beta release version of the ADC-FC100. Important: If you are on this version, please replace it with new hardware.