Using Your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite

How to Recharge Your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite

Recharging from Solar Panels

1. Place your solar panel where it will get as much direct sunlight as possible. While direct sunlight is always preferred, solar panels should be connected at all times to provide a consistent trickle charge to your battery. Solar panels will also send a charge your unit while in hazy or overcast skies.
2. Insert solar panel plug into Solar Input port on the front of Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite. You will know it is recharging when LED lights start running. The LED lights remain solid when the battery is full or there is not enough power from solar panel.
3. It takes about 15 to 25 hours to recharge Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite if using 100 watt solar panel, and also depends on the the strength of the sunlight.
4. To increase the recharging speed, you can daisy chain multiple solar panels in parallel connection. The Solar Input port can handle up to 300 watts of solar power. In other words, three of 100 watts solar panel can be chained in parallel before connecting to the Solar Input port.

Recharging from Nature's Generator Elite

1. Connect Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite to Nature's Generator Elite (not included in the box) by the expansion cable.
2. When Nature's Generator Elite is being recharged by solar, wind or wall, Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite will be recharged at the same time.
3. The LED lights do not run while Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite is recharged from Nature's Generator Elite, but you can press the LED Light Button to check battery level.

How to Connect Your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite to Nature's Generator Elite

You can connect your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite to your Nature's Generator Elite to extend the overall run time.

1. Open the top cover of the Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite, locate the expansion cable, and run the expansion cable out of Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite through the opening on the back of the Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite.
2. Locate expansion port on the back of your Nature's Generator Elite and open the rubber cover.
3. Connect the expansion cable to the expansion port. Due to the amount of voltage running between the Nature's Generator Elite and Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite, this is a very tight fit to ensure no electrical shock while connecting.
4. The Expansion (chain link) Icon will be illuminated on the display of Nature's Generator Elite to indicate Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite is connected.

You will experience an increased run time of 100% by adding one Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite, 200% by adding two Nature's Generator Power Pod Elites and 300% by adding three Nature's Generator Power Pod Elites.

How to Maintain and Store Your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite

Please recharge your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite once every four months and store in a ventilated, cool and dry location. If possible, please connect your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite to the solar panel while in storage to top off the battery voltage. This keeps the battery healthy and prolongs its life. Failure to maintain Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite by these steps can result in battery damage which will void the product warranty.

Please clean your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite with a soft, lint-free cloth. If your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite is especially dirty, moisten a soft, lint-free cloth in a weak detergent solution, squeeze the excess moisture from the cloth, then wipe the cabinet with the cloth. Use a clean cloth to dry your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite.

Troubleshooting

My Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite won't charge when I connect my solar panel to it.

Please follow these steps.

1. Make sure the solar panel is pointed directly toward the sun. It is preferred to position the solar panel facing south. The solar panel may produce little or no power if it is positioned in shade.
2. Check the cable connection on your Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite and make sure it is properly connected.
3. If the LEDs light up, but are not running. It means Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite is being fully charged by the solar panel or solar panel does not have high enough voltage to recharge the Nature's Generator Power Pod Elite.
